I'm full of suggestions
I feel I could dance all night
When I hear the bass drum
You know I can't start to fight
All over my body
It's you that I need
All over my body tonight
You know there's no remission
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
I'm moving real slow now
I'm down on a two-time beat
Men brushing against me
I know they can feel my heat
All over my body
It's you that I need
All over my body tonight
You know there's no remission
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
All over my body
You know
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true
I've nothing to prove to you
You know that it's true (all over my body)
I've nothing to prove to you (all over my body)
You know that it's true (all over my body)
I've nothing to prove to you (all over my body)

All over my body
I've nothing to prove to you (all over my body)
All over my body
I've nothing to prove to you (all over my body)
All over my body
I've nothing to prove to you (all over my body)
All over my body
I've nothing to prove to you (all over my body)
