Texas
"Polo Mint City"

Somebody told me it was over
Nobody told me where it began
No one believes in you
I understand
Like a blind man
Whose lost his way
No one hears a word
Of what you say
I forgive you
Would you do the same

I would believe you
If only you'd be true
I would believe in the truth

Cause everybody wants to be a winner
Nobody wants to lose their game
Its insane for me
Its insane for you
Its insane insane insane insane insane
Insane insane insane insane insane insane

I don't know where you been lookin'
I think its only in your mind
It's tied so tight inside of you
All the thoughts unkind

I would believe you
If only you'd be true
I would believe in the truth

Cause everybody wants to be a winner
Nobody wants to lose their game
Its insane for me
Its insane for you

I would believe you
If only you'd be true
I would believe in the truth
I'm getting older
And I can't escape time

Cause everybody wants to be a winner
Nobody wants to lose their game
Its insane for me
Its insane for you

Cause everybody wants to be a winner
Nobody wants to lose their game
Its insane for me
Its insane for you
