I see your hands they're on me
Just when you say, ?Hello?
You see your words they drown me
Then there's a warmth below

My body and soul
Are feeling fine
And my body and soul
Just killing time

When you ring my number, you ring my head
All the time for telephone sex
See my life just falling with you

I feel this rhythm draw me
But will I get my way
Your body slides beneath me
"Keep talking", I'll says

My body and soul
Are feeling fine
And my body and soul
Just killing time

When you ring my number, you ring my head
All the time for telephone sex
See my life just falling with you

When you ring my number, you ring my head
All the time for telephone sex
See my life just falling with you
(See my life just falling with you)

Well, I want to know this love's forever
Wanted to feel this free together
Wanted to sleep, just dream whenever
Falling with you

When you ring my number, you ring my head
All the time for telephone sex
See my life just falling with you

When you ring my number, you ring my head
All the time for telephone sex
See my life just falling with you
(See my life just falling with you)

See my life just falling with you
(See my life just falling with you)
See my life just falling with you
