Even now I can see that day
The fear in your eyes
Tell me why were you so afraid?

Somethings they turn out this way
Fire the bullet then you'll find
That you don't know what you left behind
When we laid you to rest

Tell me why were you so afraid?
Tell me why were you so afraid?

You walk this line, you walk this line of the hate
Where the people are so blind
Blind to the evil it create
Never say to much, never think out loud

Tell me why were you so afraid?
Tell me why were you so afraid?

I know one day you'll find a way
To heal the wounds
I know one day you'll find a way
To heal the wounds

Tell me why were you so afraid?

Even now I can see that day
The fear in your eyes
You gave all you lived for
Whilst you kept your pride

Tell me why were you so afraid?
Tell me why were you so afraid?
Tell me why?
Tell me why?
Tell me why were you so afraid?
Tell me why were you so afraid?
