"Waiting For The Fall"

What will they say to change our ways
When all we see, skies crying down
What do they say when the rain pours down
They see no sense at all

Ooh waiting for the fall
Ooh waiting for the fall

What will they say when you hide away
In their shelter
What will they say when they're left to pray
All alone in the storm

Ooh waiting for the fall
Ooh waiting for the fall
See the change from day to night
Then you wanted to come back in
They never blessed you with everything that we know
It's when we'll need you back in through a door

Ooh waiting for the fall
Ooh waiting for the fall
