Running down the central reservation

In last night's red dress

And I can still smell you on my fingers

And taste you on my breath

Stepping through brilliant shades

Of the color you bring

This time, this time, this time

Is fine just as it is

Today is whatever I want it to mean

Today is whatever I want it to mean

If this is where memories are made, well

Dreams do come true

Everything I ever took for granted

I want to see it through

I step through every shade

Any the color you bring

This time, this time, this time

Is fine just as it is

Today is whatever I want it to mean

Today is whatever I want it to mean

It's like... it's like

It's like living in the middle of the ocean

With no future, no past

And everything that's good right now

Well, I don't wish for it to last

I'll step through brilliant shades

Every color you bring

This time, this time, this time

Is fine just as it is

And today is whatever I want it to mean

Today is whatever I want it to mean

Today, today is whatever i want it to mean

Today is whatever I want it to mean
