You opened sails and you're leaving now away
Where are you travelling, where are you going
I didn't find word to say to you,
I'll be waiting for you, I'll be waiting for you,

That I'm sitting alone
On the edge of the street
That we were living in the past,
To think of you
And to count alone
The steps of bitterness,

Be careful,
There high, there is cold
,so much cold!

That I'm sitting alone
On the edge of the street

That we were living in the past,
To think of you
And to count alone
The steps of bitterness,

And I'm sitting alone
On the edge of the street
That we were living in the past,
To think of you
And to count alone
The steps of bitterness,

And I'm sitting alone
On the edge of the street
That we were living in the past,
To think of you
And to count alone
The steps of bitterness,

And I'm sitting alone
On the edge of the street
That we were living in the past,
To think of you
And to count alone
The steps of bitterness,
