She was standing right in front of me, closing her eyes,
it's a long way down with misery, she doesn't wanna believe.

It's been close to 14 years, since she ran away,
it's a long way down with the pain, that could drive you insane.

And all her dreams were broken beat and shattered, now she's hanging on for the one last chance.

she sang
all that I had, all that I owned,
was right here where I belonged,
all that I cared for, all that I wanted.

and I'm over my head, and closed to the edge, wish all could be a bad dream, please turn around and tell me this is all in my head, in
my head.
please turn around and tell me this is all in my head, in
my head.

She's a wife, a loving mother, she loves her man and all three daughters that they have,
she only wants to be home.

Then one day she got a phone call, it's about her man, and the way that he was gone today,
she just can't believe,

That all her dreams were broken beat and shattered, now she's hanging on for the one last chance,

she sang
all that I had, all that I owned,
was right here where I belonged,

all that I cared for, all that I wanted.

and I'm over my head, and close to the edge,
wish all could be a bad dream,
please turn around and tell me this is all in my head, in
my head.
please turn around and tell me this is all in my head, in
my head.

And if I ain't dreaming, oh god I wish I was dead, I was dead,
And I believe if you tell me that it is changing

she sang
all that I had, all that I owned,
was right here where I belonged,
all that I cared for, all that I wanted.

and I'm over my head, and close to the edge,
wish all could be a bad dream,
please turn around and tell me this is all in my head, in
my head.
please turn around and tell me this is all in my head, in
my head.
