Do you remember
The halo on your head?
You say you could pretend
And all the games you played
I can remember
The promise you made me keep
It makes me wonder
Would you do it all again

chorus*

I can't take no more and it's killing me
I do anything for sanity
Can't stop thinking
I can't stop thinking of you
I keep seeing you still on my bed
Breaking down blowing out of my head
Can't stop thinking
I can't stop thinking of you
And that beautiful goodbye

I see you down on the corner
I see you everywhere I turn
And nowhere to hide out
In this god-forsaken town
I keep calling your name out
Will you never hear my scream
I can't stop bleeding
From the wounds you left me with

Chorus*

Beautiful goodbye
Just a beautiful goodbye(2x)

Chorus*

Beautiful goodbye
Just a beautiful goodbye(3x)
