Dolly

Love, look in my window
Love, knock on my door
It's years since you've called on me

How I would love hearing your laughter once more
So if you should ever be in the neighborhood
Let's talk about old times.
Love, pull up a chair
How I miss your friendly smile

Love, look in my window
Love, knock on my door
Oh, love, come in and stay awhile

Oh, Ephraim, let me go!
It's been long enough, Ephraim.
Every evening for all these years,
I've put out the cat.
I've locked the door.
I even made myself a little rum toddy.
And before I went to bed, I said a prayer,
Thanking God that I was independent
That no one else's life was mixed up with mine.
But Ephraim,
I need someone else's life mixed up with mine.
So if you should ever be in the neighborhood,
Let's talk about old times.
Love, pull up a chair,
How I miss your friendly smile

Love, look in my window
Love, knock on my door
Oh, love, come in and stay awhile

Oh, Ephraim, let me go!
It's been long enough, Ephraim.
Every evening for all these years,
I've put out the cat.
I've locked the door.
I even made myself a little rum toddy.

And before I went to bed, I said a prayer,
Thanking God that I was independent
That no one else's life was mixed up with mine.
But Ephraim,
I need someone else's life mixed up with mine.
So if you should ever be in the neighborhood,
Let's talk about old times.
Love, pull up a chair,
How I miss your friendly smile

Love, look in my window
Love, knock on my door
Oh, love, come in and stay awhile!
