

Texas Funeral "Passive Masquerade"

I have kept my words locked inside my head
To try to avoid your confrontation

I never was the type to argue about every single thing
But that's about to change
No longer will I hide behind a wall of lies that has imprisoned me
I languished in your misery

(Chorus)
You can help your self to anything at all
This passive masquerade has went on for too long

I took the time to breathe and analyze the fears that tainted me
That overwhelmed my soul
But now that my mind is carefree I've taken off my mask for you to see
The truth behind my mystery

(Chorus)
You can help your self to anything at all
This passive masquerade has went on for too long

I distant shiver creeping down my spine
Forgotten feelings I thought I left behind
I came to close to accept your sympathy

(Chorus)
You can help your self to anything at all
This passive masquerade has went on for too long

Take your time
But choose you life or else
Or else you'll die alone
A nameless face without even a whisper
But I can't explain, it wasn't for me.
