Look at me
Am I so wasted that I can't please a heart that is breaking?
Standing alone feeling naked
And this loneliness won't leave me alone

Goodbye baby
You sent me away
Goodbye, goodbye

You can see woman that you have plenty
Even though my face is one of the many
Now all those heartaches are empty
And those miles won't hurt me no more

Goodbye baby
You sent me away
Goodbye, goodbye

And baby, I'd give anything
Just to be in your arms again
Lovin' you, lovin' you

Look at me
Am I so wasted that I can't please a heart that is breaking?
Standing alone feeling naked
And this loneliness won't leave me alone

You can see it's just a part of livin'
That this highway was so unforgivin'
Now the sky shall be my limit
And my soul will be travelin' on Yes my soul will be travelin' on

Goodbye baby
You sent me away
Goodbye, goodbye
