maybe im intractable
and maybe you wish you knew what that means and maybe im just too political and maybe you are just dreaming of me please tell me why i only like you when youre cutting me

(hah hah)

and you say
i want a car to take me far away i want a beer to get me out of here

you wont believe these things that i have seen cause i turned forty-five when i turned fourteen ill set the scene
your eyes were lime green your nails dug into me we shared a quiet scream

we were dreaming
taht this was liraty
but found that bleeding is still a girl thing heavy breathing
(hey)
