Well, it's up in the mornin'
Everybody off and runnin'
Everybody got some place to be
Some people never go walkin'
Some people just stop talkin'
And I was slippin' away
You came and pulled me through
I wanna stay in the land of the living with you
I wanna stay in the land of the living
I wanna stay here with you
I wanna stay in the land of the living
I wanna stay here with you
We work and we worry
This old world's in such a hurry
So many things we just don't see
Some people always cryin'
Some people just stop tryin'
And I was slippin' away
You came and pulled me though
I wanna stay in the land of the living with you
We got to do what we can about all this pain and sorrow

But try to live just a little

We could all be gone tomorrow

When I look at you girl, my heart rejoices

You taught me somethin':

Considering the choices-

I wanna stay in the land of the living

I wanna stay here with you

I wanna stay in the land of the living

I wanna stay here with you
