I try to become one face
But these eyes see clear
Passed the lips into these lies
Disguised and torn
A wish this simple, a wish sincere
A wish that blames me all the time (disappear)
So what the fuck you trying to say?
Let the lesson be told
It doesn't matter anyway
Feel my bones break down
Feel my soul break down

I'll never be the same!

Every time I open up confiding in you
The truth is never seen
All I ever think about is hiding from me
From you so I can be
Become a vanishing

Back to pain back it up (fade inside)
The ripping of all you know
Back to pain back it up (fade inside)
The ripping of all you know

They're coming in waves
In fast forms fighting for the higher level
First to cave under the light becomes the sun
A wish this simple, a wish sincere
A wish that blames me all the time (disappear)
So what the fuck you trying to say?
Let the lesson be told
It doesn't matter anyway
Feel my bones break down
Feel my soul break down

I'll never be the same!
