It's funny how the summer fades
Even though the season never changed
But here am I left all alone
While something's going on
Something has gone wrong
Something's going on with you

Without you the rain would fall
I'd be lost, I'd be lost
Without you
I believe my life would end
Without you

My love for you grows ever strong
In my heart is where you belong
And even now through all the tears
I'd take you back again
I could not pretend
My feelings never end for you

Without you the rain would fall
I'd be lost, I'd be lost
Without you
I believe my life would end
Without you
Without you

Being with you I thought was forever
But what can we do
Cause I'm falling apart
And it's breaking my heart

I believe my life would end
Without you the rain would fall
I'd be lost, I'd be lost
Without you
I believe my life would end
Without you
Without you the rain would fall
I'd be lost, I'd be lost
Without you

I believe my life would end
Without you
