It's so hard
To shake the fear off you
Why so scared?
Do my black thoughts lie with you?
One day you will wake to find
That this has all been lies

It's not like this is
The end of the world
I'll not shower you in kisses
Your young lips
My hard words for you
You're severed from the truth
But I'll see you again

One day you will wake to find
That this has all been lies

It's not like this is
The end of the world
I'll not shower you in kisses
Your young lips
My hard words for you
You're severed from the truth
Why so depressing and aloof
Always?

I'll not shower you in kisses
Your young lips
My hard words for you
You're severed from the truth
Why so depressing and aloof
Always?
