Came to search for a four-leafed clover

Hoping to make that wish

That this dream soon be over

Hoping to make that wish

Climbing the stairs of the undetermined

Hoping to see you there

Thoughts running wild like the swirl of a whirlwind

Tell me is it still fair?

That the sun should shine in the morning

And all I see is the moon

It takes a lot of reforming

It will be over soon

Chorus:

Promise me a new dream

I'll make a brand new start

Promise me a morning

And feel change of heart
