

That Dog "Being With You"

I sit with emptiness waiting for your call
Will you still love me after the fall?
An open phone line but I still hit your walls
And it's just like being with you

The cold rejection that we conceive
Our whole reflection that I can't believe
We'll say it's over but won't feel relief
It's just like being with you
It's just like being with you

You know what you need to do
And I know what's right for me
And you know what you need to do
And I know what's right for me

A happy birthday I will wish you
A swollen memory, so we must choose
A tearful goodbye but we can't lose
It's just like being with you
It's just like being with you

And you know what you need to do
And I know what's right for me
