he threw one down from the top of the stairs beautiful women were standing everywhere they all got wet when he smashed that thing but off in the dark you could hear somebody sing it breaks my heart to see those stars smashing a perfectly good guitar i dont know who they think they are

smashing a perfectly good guitar

it started back in 1963 his mama wouldnt buy him that new red harmony he settled for a sunburst with a crack but hes still trying to break his mamas back oh it breaks my heart to see those stars

smashing a perfectly good guitar
i dont know who they think they are

how he loved that guitar just like a girlfriend but every good thing comes to an end now he just sits in his room all day whistling every note he ever played well there outta be a law with no bail smash a guitar and you go to jail with no chance for early parole you dont get out until you get some soul

smashing a perfectly good guitar
i dont know who they think they are

late at night the end of the road he wishes he still had that old guitar to hold he'd rock it like a baby in his arms never let it come to any harm

i dont know who they think they are
smashing a perfectly good guitar
