Everything is beautiful
I can see the sun up in the sky
Right before the smoke gets in my eyes

Look into my hourglass
Has our future come to pass
Look into my hourglass

What do you see, what do you see, what do you see
Maybe the time has come to set each other free
What do you see, what do you see, what do you see
What do you see if not the love inside of me

Have we lost the poetry
Have our velvet wings turned to stone
Am I stronger out here on my own

Can we find serenity
Can we walk away from beautiful
Are the answers buried in your soul

What do you see, what do you see, what do you see
Maybe the time has come to set each other free
What do you see, what do you see, what do you see
What do you see if not the love inside of me

Standing on the moon I'm calling
Can you hear me whisper softly
Talk to me cause I am broken
I wonder where you are

Look into my hourglass
Has the future come to pass
Look into my hourglass

What do you see, what do you see, what do you see
Maybe the time has come to set each other free
What do you see, what do you see, what do you see
What do you see if not the love inside of me
Everything is beautiful...
