"Resistance"

we all know deep down that one day we all will just

eat resistance
sleep resistance
reep resistance
resist

check the junglistic jibber jaw at the drum and bass seminar with the troubadour peep the metaphor less is more when you're at the resevoir glass half empty glass half full keep your eyes out for the crystal skulls rock the riddim with thoughts intelligent carve my name in it on the wet cement i triple the syllable with a titanium telescope medicine vehicle then i defeated the simpletons taking a chance on the nanobot bicycle delegate melting your element into a vacuous nebula gravity gripping up everything retina spotting the obvious entity coagulate caligula boiling point gwan culminate sustain the pulserate with a dubplate its not too late we still got time they could never kill the shine triple space the darkness is building a metropolis a shrine upon the fingertip heaven sent specimen mescaline pyramid it never stops, the pod splits nanobot apocalypse theres a paradox in the way we walk somethings got to give and i'mma gonna come upon the micrphone and never ever stop it with the force of a comet or meteoroid, builddestroy microchips ahoy killjoy sitting duck sigmund freud pon the couch and i'm bouncing millenium falcon countdown two thousand move mountains

whistle heavy rocks into position and channel the mandelbrot algorythm bout to hit em with a total eclipse flow with the script its the vocal abyss resistance is fertile wild for the night website megabyte dendrite peptide nematode enzyme anecdote cranial hijack anti climax saphire amethyst, try and censor this america is the terrorist there it is plain to see negativity cant damage we we reiterate data and vedic integrity ready for whatever penalty buries we

all eye seeing supreme neo elohim being the premium paramecium never ceases releasing amnesia magnesium got your brain freezin and you aint even know theres paint on your sleeve and the train is leaving on this fateful evening return to the ancient season veritcal mosaic certainly plague language serve you to the curb of the pavement but dont be worried or anxious i'll murder you painless with a nervous arrangement oh check it the current is dangerous everthing is in its place circulates and leaves a trace disintegrating and reappearing with the fate that we keep fearing tearing down like all of them walls remember that love conquers all phenobarbitol this the actual drop the waterfall keep it casual this is the art of doing nothing keep it moving keep it bumping the manner in which i pimp comes to prominence over the elongated course of a trillion light years bending time diodes and crystaline structures the number cruncher puffing the chumba wamba up in the tundra thunda clap thunda cat riding on a hovercraft mustard gas keep it under raps i'm choppin the track like a lumberjack
