Intro]

["Say what?" scratched repeatedly]

[Sen Dog]

I be that, short-temper, hostile rhyme bringer

Lifestyle gone wild, similar to rock singers

Check me on the big screen, livin' out my dreams

Cypress, Assassins, SX, latin thug thing

Fools think they get bad, I ain't really with that

Flavour of the month, bro, (?) try to dispatch

Always got the good badge, take it to the head

Got me wasted like Jerry from the Grateful Dead

Don't trip, get a grip, be strong and don't fake it

Or else you get beat down, an' stripped butt-naked

I just kick the lyric, straight from the spirit

You can tell I got soul first time as you hear it

[Chorus - Sen Dog and B-Real (repeat 2x)]

Welcome to the show, all come inside

You can hear proper sound when it's Amplified

You wanna party with the best and say "fuck the rest"

'Cos we take away ya stress and never settle for less

[B-Real]

When you deal with the Hill, keep your mouth still

If you rely on your skill then rely on your steel

If you have no ideal, or any thoughts to feel

What you sought was real, to give 'em slots to fill

Busters stop to deal

But I face them, quicker than takin' a box of pills

Now you gots to chill

Get cops and sheilds, steady, hark the (?)

If they're lookin' for prey, ready to stalk and kill

As I lock the wheel, don't you mock the drill

'Cos I'll cock my steel, make you drop and spill

Got no mercy unless you talk to deal

Quit talk and kneel, you won't top my will, bitch!

[Chorus (repeat 2x)]

["Say what?" scratched some more]

[Sen Dog]

Ain't no-body better, on that you can bet (CY-PRESS!)

Wanna see a dope show? Put your money on my set

Real emcees and real DJs

Real South-siders from the heart of LA

Now, back in the day we had big sucesess

And it's like that now and we won't settle for less

You can beat the LB from the new latin lingo

Nowadays you nothin', without a hit single

Time to get loco, and put bodies in motion

Hit the stage in a rage, and start up a commotion

No I ain't jokin, see my mic smokin'?

I slam it like the art and make sure it's broken

[Chorus (repeat 2x)]

[scratching to fade
