Featuring Barron Ricks Chace Infinite]

[Barron Ricks]

My flows most beneficent most merciful outrageous for wages vibrate niggaz heads like pagers

Too hard to handle son we animals biohazardous

Ghetto evangelist lyric distortions abortions of fortune shit shittin on your ASR 10 Sequence

Fuckin up the disc

These be the words blow niggaz acoustic nerves when I swerve I'm bustin adjectives and verbs at curves

Hear the thunder then I melt the frozen tundra, sank Titanics

Crack solid granite, initiate global panic

Harlem got me branded, rhythms jingle like bricks

These niggaz face it or face off, give up or break North

My lines petrify your mind's third eye, when I'm high

I pull the Trey in your insides, I strike blindside

Rip inside, my syllables simmer for every criminal in prison whose an individual lose that struggle

My stories burst niggaz bubbles, make new niggaz mumble

Ready to shed blood up in the jungles

Aiyyo we livin it, magnificent Cypress, worldwide!

[B-Real]

I take the micaphone cord, use it as a rope to hang all the weak rappers for leavin the bullshit they wrote

Counterfeit fools all in the pot, let em boil

When we go platinum they go, aluminum foil

The worldwide clicks and the parties with no parties

Cause niggaz'll get you quickly like the skin off a blunt when they get burned and smoked, put out and used up

Niggaz don't know how to act when they lit the fuse up

Abuse them up, usin the nut, I'm usin buck

Fearin of the shit, that's covered the script, deliver cuts

Cypress Hill, Soul Assassins, all up in the club

Showin love to everyone of you real niggaz

Cause the hip-hop's pumpin through the blood in my veins like a junkie, fuckin with 'ron and cocaine

Slay you both down, better hold down or get clowned by the world renowned, Cypress compound!

[Chace Infinite]

Heavy artillery rap niggaz attack from both sides of the map, leave you flat on your back, my thoughts dwell in the dark black abyss, Chace Infinite kicks rhymes over rhythm and spit hot flame from his lips I represent, the cream of the earth, bless his birth My order in the elements in the universe My mental enter your physical frame, penetrate like pushin your face straight through a window pane with twenty bars, I'm sinister God, administer pain to your paragraph it ain't hard, see I studied the life-science for years in this, doin songs with my indigineous peers n shit, hit you with the omnipotent gland The benficient stare, write a rhyme to shine light in your ear, don't make a move that'll end your career Stand clear, I stand firm on solid ground Pump Blood Sweat and Tears, verbal architect, engineer Shiftin your ear, to Cypress Hill, you wack niggaz caps is peeled, the scientific Soul Assassin We dominate tracks and thrash in the front lines Soldier ready for action, rapid fire rappin
