Intro):

Whispers passed in silence

Two lovers passing in the night

A love thats left and hopeless

That can never survive

1 What are we gonna do

What are they gonna to say

Where are we gonna to go

When they find out

What are we gonna do

What are they gonna say

Where are we gonna go

When they find out

Sing your song sing your song sing your song

Really dont know you well

Got to get to know me too

So see, we can make this work

Through your friends wont approve

See, we cant let them know

Exactly whats going on

Cuz they wont understand

What we have between us

(Repeat 1)

Woody, Woody, Woody, Woddy

I know we may be rushing

Theres no time to think it through

Cuz when love overcomes your heart

Theres nothing you can do

Misery loves company

By now you should know

People always have advice about being together

When theyre all alone

I cry

I cry, I cry, late at night baby

Inside

Inside my heart babe

I was all alone

Dont you let no God damn body come near

And tear our love apart

Cuz I love you girl

Youre all my world

So what are we gonna do

What are we gonna do

I feel so afraid, babe

Feel like a baby

Just hold me darling

And let me know

I need to know

Ive got to know

What are we, oh baby

(Repeat 1) x2

What are we gonna do

Oh well, well, well, well, well, well

Oh baby, well, well, well, well
