All the people that you love to hate
Are the people that you love to stay
And the people that you think look best
Are the ones who never looked impressed

All the lover's ended up in threes
With the girls who used to sit with me
And the people that you need today
Are the ones that always walked away

It's late at night
And i dont want another fight
It's late at night
And nothing that i wear looks right

And i was just thinking, if we stop the drinking
Could i stay together? Would you laugh forever?
You asked me to dance
But i dont do romance

All the places that you have to be
With the people that you need to leave
And the places where we used to go
Are the ones you should of left alone

All the lover's ended up in threes
With the girls who used to sit with me
And the people that you need to stay
Are the ones you always turned away

It's late at night
And i dont want another fight
It's late at night
And nothing that i said was right

And i was just thinking, if we stop the drinking
Could i stay together? Would you laugh forever?
You asked me to dance
But i dont do romance

It's late at night

And i dont want another fight
It's late at night
And nothing that i said was right

And i was just thinking, if we stop the drinking
Could i stay together? Would you laugh forever?
You asked me to dance
But i dont do romance
