It's a beautiful landscape
The sunset makes the coast look so clear
It's the kind that makes your heart break
But no one has those kind of problems here

And from the sage brush comes a dove
It comes to take away the ones you love
In camouflage comes the dove
And it comes to take away the ones you love

Wake up you faithless
See your heartbreak gone

The wolf has found a way
To lead this foolish flock of sheep astray
And the clouds make fearful noises and slowly turn black and shake
The darkness comes around you and dark has come to take

And it will cut the life right from you
Leave you standing in the rain
With nowhere left to run to
And no one left to love you but the pain

Wake up you faithless
See your heartbreak gone
There's no use trying to hold on

Wake up you faithless
You won't be here for long
And this ship wreck will soon be gone

All that I know is what I've learned from troubled times
I've stood alone on the last shore where putting hand under black skies
I have been hunted through the valleys and the corners of my life
Fight or die

Wake up you faithless

And see your heartbreak gone
It's no use trying to hold on

Wake up you faithless
You won't be here for long
And this ship wreck will soon be gone

Wake up you faithless
