I'll be your martyr and I'll be your saint
I will be the one that you can blame
I'll take the bullets and I'll be crucified
With a smile on my face when I die
Put my face on top on the TV screen
Worship me fools
Come and worship me
Eternally I'm a reason for your fight
It is enough for me
I'm soaring in heights
I've hid my horus
Don't you feel the knife in your back?
Won't do a thing to help you through
Only thing is certain
I guide you to your doom
