its not up to me, its not A13 its not the Circle K at the top of street

I know it may seem debonnaire
But there's time on the line that we just can't spare Hold up everybody, put it all on ice Gotta feeling on the mic that's twice as nice Gotta cope with the dope by cutting soap So turned on livin' out my horoscope

No one can do it like we can We take the stand with a master plan
We are the educated, motivated, skin tight, rawhide, hardworkin',
blood sweatin', Hollerin', your world wreckin'
Ladies of eighty three Ladies you want to be
We're not the first but that matters least Cos there's free rough justice for the masterpiece

I said
A panther is What a cougar aint
What a royal wants to be What a hustler cant
What the ladies like
What the fellas love
What U L C can't get enough of I said now
Walk like a panther?
I said
Walk like a panther?
What the ladies like

we got no second chance, we got a soldier's stance we got the thrills in our skills that you can't advance never gonna get ninety nine percent my get up and go just got up and went so unrelenting, pay strict attention my mind is heading In the right direction more hits than bazooka smooth our guarantee is we can move our Q and A don't ricochet we make the play with a double A

we are the educated, motivated, skin tight, rawhide,
hardworkin',

i got rockets to the left of me bullets to the right of me flames to the back of me spark the TNT
cobras to the left of me vipers to the right of me we're the
G. O. T
E. A. M

Oh Oh double Oh P
Oh Oh double Oh P
we say
you say
you say
we fly
you're the ones we notify

one nine one three
you know you wanna be like me
one nine one three
we gotta life to set free
one nine one three
we gonna shake the AKG
one nine one three
you wanna bring it back like me
