Tell me, sir, where we going now?
The wind blows from town to town
Takin' away, you can never stay.
Something to do, who we were before
Tell you the truth I don't know anymore
Where I've been, where to go.

And I've fought and I dreamed
And I've patiently prayed
Just reach and touch the grace
Father find me now, father find me now
Father find me now.

They will push you and rush you
On down the line and you best keep moving
Hoping someone will find where you are
Who you were, where we goin'?
Please tell me, sir.

And I've fought and I dreamed
And I've patiently prayed
Just reach and touch the grace
Father find me now, father find me now
Father find me now.

Me and my sister used to play this game
I try to remember but I can't explain
All the rules, where has she gone?
Where we goin'? And where has she gone?
Tell me, sir, just where she's gone.

And I've fought and I dreamed
And I've patiently prayed
Just reach and touch the grace
Father find me now, father find me now
Father find me now.
