Hear them saying that a lot is a lot
You think that it's all that matters
You've done your math well
You've checked the figures
You've done your math, tell
Who is the bigger?
Man can't explain it but you got a hunch
Well that's allways something
Climb up the ladder
step up a notch
Climb up the ladder, then see what you got

But if you do it
Do it good, Brutus
Real good!
Like a little man should

Did your homework
and you've worked the mob
Because, it's all you can do
Tried for a lot still
You have a little
What ever happened mister?
You couldn't figure
Out of the rot
Still you can't get it right
Can't get a lot for a little
You keep trying
Ending up in the middle
Had an enigma
Ended up with a riddle

But if you do it
Do it good, Brutus
REAL GOOD!

Rewind and look at what you got
Had a vision but you lost the plot
Judas, Brutus, Quisling, tme has come to do

Whats expected of you!
