Take off your funny face
And look around the world
We got to humanize
We got to humanize to see

Love was here and love was there
And love was everywhere
We got to humanize
We got to humanize the world

Humanize
Humanize

No one ever told us
What war was all about
We got to humanize
We got to humanize the world

No one ever told us
What love was all about
We got to humanise
We got to humanize the world

You and everyone in a world of love
You and everyone in a world of war

We got to humanize
We got to humanize

Take off your funny face
And look around the world
We got to humanize
We got to humanize to see

Love was here and love was there
And love was everywhere
We got to humanize
We got to humanize the world

You and everyone in a world of love
You and everyone in a world of war

You and everyone in a world of love
You and everyone in a world of war

You and everyone in a world of love
You and everyone in a world of war
You and everyone in a world of love
You and everyone in a world of war

We got to humanize
We got to humanize
We got to humanize
We got to humanize
