"In Your Eyes"

Do you believe in love? Do you believe in destiny?
Do you believe in love? Do you believe in destiny?

Wake up and smell the coffee brewing
And I can look up you smiling on me
How sweet it is to be loved by you
How cute! You look like an angel!

*I hear you whisper, with smile gently and freely
my darling, do you believe in destiny?
Believe me, I'll always love you like the stars above
Do you know what? I love you more than before

Your eyes are filled with love
I can see the heaven in your eyes
You came up into my life and changed my mind
With love deeply touching my heart

*Repeat

To touch you...
To feel you...
To kiss you and be able to hold you in my arms
Baby, do you know what these mean to me?
My darling, do you know how much I love you?

I can see the heaven in your eyes
Woh your eyes are filled with love

Repeat
