"Along Came Mary"

Was alone then along came Mary, hair of gold and lips
like cherries

Was amazed when she stole my thunder, filled my world with the ways of wonder

Come away come away with me, Far away where the eyes can't see

Come away to another time, Pardon me if you lose your mind

Who are you now? Who makes the rules?

Follow your heart and get back....

Won't you get back....Â

Oh get back

like cherries

Was amazed when she stole my thunder, Filled my
world with the ways of wonder

Come away come away with me, Far away where the
eyes can't see

mind

Pardon me if you lose your mind

Pardon me if you lose, oh if you lose your mind
