I'm hooked on a problem, it won't go away

So many opinions, I don't know what to say

Can somebody help me, what they trying to do

Life used to be simple, life used to be fun but it's all catching up on me, tell me what have I done

Can somebody help me, what they trying to do

Chorus:

Hey don't you ever get lonely, hey don't you wish it was easy

Facing the world on your own

I'm hooked on a problem, it won't let me go

The way people look at me feels like twenty below

Can somebody help me, what they trying to do

I'm walking a tightrope with stars in my eyes,

In danger of falling, won't you kiss me goodbye

Can somebody help me, what they trying to do

Repeat Chorus

If you know the answer, what I'm tryin' to say

I need a solution, 'cause I'm wasting away

Can somebody help me, what they trying to do

Won't somebody help me, what they trying to do

Can somebody help me, what they trying to do
