Love, love is a thousand times stronger than me, stronger than you

Well if you want to be a soldier go marching off to war

You think you're going to be a hero but we've heard it all before, boy

Love, love is a thousand times dearer than me, dearer than you

Well if you want to be a leader, Then go and lead the way

You're never going to give us freedom no matter what you say, boy

I said it'd better come soon...

La-La-La

'Cause love-love is the way

If only we all could hear, It just seems so clear

I just can't believe watching the world what am I seeing?

But I know there's a way, oh there must be a way

Oh there must come day - come a time when I can be free...

'Cause I want to hear her voice, softer than me, softer
than you

Whatever will it take me to bring her smile my way

'Cause every time I try to please her, she loves to go in hiding

I said she'd better come soon
