Down in size, left to burn
Superior turned away again
Demolition of our hands
An aftermath you'll never see

We'll never hear you scream...No!
Oh, won't you...

Walk inside Insania
The world through our eyes
Take your place by our side
The herd of deafening demise

High on fuel, still in flames
Determination rules the game
A promised trust is what you seek
We do not fear, but we sure do bleed

We'll never hear you scream...No!
Oh, won't you...

Walk inside Insania
The world through our eyes
Take your place by our side
The herd of deafening

Walk inside Insania
The world through our eyes
Take your place by our side
The herd of deafening demise

[Solo]

We'll never hear you scream...No!
Oh, won't you...

Walk inside Insania
The world through our eyes
Take your place by our side
The herd of deafening

Walk inside Insania
The world through our eyes
Take your place by our side
The herd of deafening demise
