Did you ever see yourself?
Or did you feel a thing?
The one greatest fear of all mankind

A massive load of power
Laid it with the withdraw
Dominated and overcrowded
All just failed flesh

Lord, I asked for God to save us all
And he just knew the reason why
Now is the time to hear the truth aloud
We are here

Turn this picture upside down
And feed your calling
Wait for the moment
"And just remind yourself about turning back to the unholy"

Finish what you've started
And never blunt my words
You never deserved this
"And nothing else you might've stumbled across even in your pathetic life, goddamn it"

Lord, I asked for God to save you all
And he just knew the reason why
Now is the time to hear the truth aloud
We are here

[Solo]

Lord, I asked for God to save us all
And he just knew the reason why
Now is the time to hear the truth aloud
We are here

Lord, I asked for God to save you all
And he just knew the reason why
Now is the time to hear the truth aloud

We are here

"We are here to die!"
