These January blues are melting me away.
I'm putting on my shoes,
Gonna feel how it feels to be AOK.
And everybody listens - and everybody cares.
But in the end it's you,
Who comes along and saves the day.

And I'll always have a friend to laugh about.
And I'll always know someone who can make me cry.
And I'll always have a friend to scream and shout.
And I'll always know someone, but I don't know why.

The lights are going out, going out of my mind.
And each and every day,
I plan to wake up and put the past behind.
And nobody listens - and nobody cares.
But don't you know that someone who makes me feel as good as you is impossible to find.

And I'll always have a friend to laugh about.
And I'll always know someone who can make me cry.
And I'll always have a friend to scream and shout.
And I'll always know someone, but I don't know why.

I'm waiting in the treetops, so high.
And when I look around, I wonder why.
What do I have to do to make you see that you're the only one for me?

And I'll always have a friend to laugh about.
And I'll always know someone who can make me cry.
And I'll always have a friend to scream and shout.
And I'll always know someone, but I don't know why.
