"Pack Your Bags"

Class is looking cute today
so what is wrong with your face?
I fell I gotta get away and find another place.
'Cause I get so sad sometimes when you and I
Stay home and watch TV, and I know this other girl
Who wants to get with me

Bought a brand new suit today,
The kind I know that you hate.
Doesn't matter anyway, you ain't the girl I date.
But I get so sad sometimes; I know that you don't Want me anymore, and besides you ain't the girl
I'm singing this song for.

When all your medication makes you everything I see.
Then pack your bags and come and follow me.
We'll have a celebration, sail way beyond the sea.
So pack your bags and come and follow me.

Class is looking cute today, but it feels so fake.
I get the feeling that I may have made a big mistake.
And I get so sad sometimes, when I sit home
Alone and watch TV and I think about those days
When you were here with me.

When all your medication makes you everything I see.
Then pack your bags and come and follow me.
I know I don't know you that well,
But you're my fantasy.
So pack your bags and come and follow me
