"Take A Break"

She knows about everything that's true.
She knows she don't need you.
She doesn't have all that much to do.
But did you know that she's about to,

Take a break, take some time,
For herself, for her mind,
And your just scared that she'll be fine.
Take a break, get some rest
It's pretty cool that she's the best,
And that she put your beliefs to the test.

She only cries on Saturdays.
Her girlfriends look away.
She doesn't have all that much to say.
She bought a room on San Francisco Bay.

Take a break, take some time,
For herself, for her mind,
And your just scared that she'll be fine.
Take a break, get some rest
It's pretty cool that she's the best,
And that she put your beliefs to the test.
