"Where in the World"

We get by in this four wheel drive
Getting over upon a desolate roadside
The sun rises in our eyes and a mound for you to climb
Here we are on the edge of our old lives

Looking back on a world going up in flames
Back on a world never to be the same
Where in the world can we find the time to get away

Ah, you better run, run and hide
From the planes and satellites
Creek along, creek alive in this old sky
I hear them screaming out ...
I hear them screaming in ...
Here we are on the edge of our old lives

Looking back on the world going up in flames
Back on a world never to be the same
Where in the world can we find the time to get away
We're looking back on the world going up in flames
Back on a world never to be the same
Where in the world can we find the time to get away

Oh, you and I
I never thought I could ever fall in love
No, I never thought I'd be on the other side
I never thought I could ever fall in love with a lover like you
I never thought I'd be on the other side of the world
With you

Don't leave me
I won't leave you
Don't leave me

Looking back on the world going up in flames
Back on a world never to be the same
Where in the world can we find the time to get away
We're looking back on the world going up in flames
Back on a world never to be the same
Where in the world can we find the time to get away
