I thought I knew him so well
We were perfect for each other and that was easy to tell
But one day he made me see
That it just wasn't meant to be
It wasn't meant to be
It's God's little way of talking to me
He's telling me girl that aint your destiny oooh it wasn't meant to be
I sat and cried today
Wondering how to move on and what way
I had only looked at my life from a glance
I took a wrong turn, took a wrong chance
It wasn't meant to be
It's God's little way of talking to me
He's telling me girl that aint your destiny
oooh it wasn't meant to be (repeat 2x)
