Why is it so hard to see baby
That you were meant for me oh yeah but now that we have come so far apart there is never a way to start over (oh no we'll never start over)
We can never go back
It's too late to pull out those old memories
We can't settle and pack
It's too late we can never go back
No matter how hard we try
All that happens is I start to cry
And you can tell me it won't happen again
But it's just dragging me in because
We can never go back
It's too late to pull out those old memories
We can't settle and pack
It's too late we can never go back
You tell me you want me but you only want yourself
You want me to believe you but I been there done that
We can never go back
It's too late to pull out those old memories

We can't settle and pack

It's too late we can never go back
