

Good Life, The "Under A Honeymoon"

Visit "Under A Honeymoon" on MotoLyrics.com

You look at me like you've been saved from another one that got away So I'm your latest cup of tea to keep your cold hands company and I will warm you I will calm you down until those waters are ready to be sailed upon
Under a honeymoon

You say you've never felt this way at least not this early We decide to hold nothing back we'll act how we want to act
And so, eventually, we became really good actors Acting and reacting and acting and reacting
Under a honeymoon

We know the sun is gonna rise we tell ourselves to act surprised We're comforted in our denial that dark love can be reconciled Oh please, oh please ... reconcile me
From all these bad actors, all these bad endings

Under a honeymoon
we want what we're not and we don't want to stop cause it feels right - or at least it's feeling good

... at least it feels good ...

I always fall in love too soon caught beneath the glow of a honeymoon.

Visit Good Life, The page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.