Jesus, my Savior
Keeper of my heart
On Your wings alone am I carried
In Your Arms alone am I held

Cause I will always run to You, my Lord
When everyone has fallen by the wayside
I will always run to You; whatever I do
With all that I have, my Lord

Christ my Redeemer
Comforter and friend
In trials I find Your mercy
In sorrow You take my hand

Cause I will always run to You, my Lord
When everyone has fallen by the wayside
I will always run to You; whatever I do
With all that I have, my Lord

I will always run to You, my Lord
When everyone has fallen by the wayside
I will always run to You; whatever I do
With all that I have, my Lord

Run to You
My Lord, to You
My Lord, to You
My Lord

Cause I will always run to You, my Lord
When everyone has fallen by the wayside
I will always run to You; whatever I do
With all that I have, my Lord, my Lord
With all that I have, my Lord, my Lord
With all that I have, my Lord
