It would take another life
To see what I have done
Have I lived through the best times?
Have I hurt anyone?

Just to do it all over
Make it all rhyme
Like a book with no cover
Like a page out of time

If I had another lifetime
If I had another day
I might have walked a straighter line
I might have known what to say

In another lifetime
In another day
If I say what's on my mind
Would you love me anyway?

Started walking down a one-way-street
Now I can't return
Ain't nobody coming after me
This is the lesson I've learned

I'm no stranger to the bad times
I'll just stand my ground
And remember that the good times
Don't always come back around

If I had another lifetime
If I had another day
I might have walked a straighter line
I might have known what to say

In another lifetime
In another day
If I say what's on my mind
Would you love me anyway?

It would take another life
To see what I have done

Have I lived through the best times?
Have I hurt anyone?

Just to do it all over
Make it all rhyme
Like a book with no cover
Like a page out of time

If I had another lifetime
If I had another day
I might have walked a straighter line
I might have known what to say

In another lifetime
In another day
If I say what's on my mind
Would you love me anyway?

In another lifetime
In another day
If I say what's on my mind
Would you love me anyway?
