

The Desert Rose Band

"It Takes A Believer"

Visit "It Takes A Believer" on MotoLyrics.com

I don't take it for granted, some things that money can't buy
If I'm left empty handed, I'll keep walking the line
If it's really forever, for a while I've got to pretend We'll be walking together in a dream that will never end

It takes a believer to hold on to the truth
You tell me you've seen her with somebody new
Don't tell me the story, don't tell me the lie
It takes a believer, when the well runs dry

I hear the sound of her footsteps, I feel the presence within
Takes a lot of forgiveness to fall in love again

It takes a believer to hold on to the truth
You tell me you've seen her with somebody new
Don't tell me the story, don't tell me the lie
It takes a believer when the well runs dry

Don't tell me the story, don't tell me the lie
It takes a believer, when the well runs dry
It takes a believer
It takes a believer

Visit The Desert Rose Band page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.