"Twilight Is Gone"

This has been the longest night I've ever known It's so long since I felt this alone Sometimes I just can't see the way things are supposed to be Now that the twilight has gone
Now there is nothing left to say there you go you have it your own way
Been in the dark so long we couldn't see where it went wrong
Now that the twilight is gone
The first step is the hardest part where do we take it from here
Only after a hardened heart do tears finally disappear
And I'm on my own now that the twilight is gone [ac.guitar - dobro]
Lonely nights and crazy days we sure let it slip away Just tell me life goes on is there a new day with every dawn
Now that the twilight is gone now that the twilight is gone
Now that the twilight is gone
