Do you remember the time we went hand in hand,
through the garden,
like the words right out of a movie?
So I made up a bit in my head,
that you felt what I did
as I pushed you up on my back.

'Cause you said you never felt the same,
and I've never felt this way before.. EVER.
and I've never felt this way before.. and I remember you always held my hand, and never
let me go.
I remember you always holding my hand.
As you wish me farewell from this time so sweet, with that good bye kiss.
'Til I later found you only messed with my mind.
'Cause you were only afraid.
and I've never felt this way before. EVER
and I've never felt this way before... EVER
and I remember you always held my hand, and never
let me go.
I remember you always holding my hand.
And I never felt this way before EVER.
I remember you always held my hand
and never let me go.
I remember you always holding my hand.
